presents

The Shaft
of york central school
retsof
new york

In recognition of this, the 25th Anniversary of our "Shaft," we present here an excerpt from the first "Shaft," edited by the Class of 1940.

FOREWORD

After months of strenuous work, we publish the "Shaft" to show the classes, clubs, sports, activities, friends, classmates, teachers; and the new modernly equipped school that have benefited us in many educational and recreational ways during our years in high school. The new school has afforded us many pleasant memories that can be derived only from being the first senior class to reign in a new school and from spending the first year in becoming acquainted with its newness.

The "Shaft" will serve as a memento of our happy school days that can always be reviewed with pleasure.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1964, dedicate our "Shaft" to the 25 preceding classes of York Central. We appreciate the initiative shown by the Class of 1940 in bringing about the birth of the "Shaft," and we hope that the following classes will continue to edit it as a memorial of their golden high school years.

 The Senior Class of York Central School
 presents
 its senior ball
 Silver Bells
 Time: 9-12 pm
 Music by Frank Matina

The York Central gymnasium was superbly decorated by the committee with green and white crepe paper highlighted by an enormous evergreen wreath which glittered with red lights in the center of the floor. Three silver bells were suspended from its center and reflected the lights.

The stage curtains opened to reveal the throne which was set off by evergreen boughs and colored lights.

Thomasine Rainer and David MacIntyre reigned as Queen and King of the festive occasion which was accented with the music of Frank Matina.

ALMA MATER

With fervor we will praises sing
 To our Alma Mater true.
 Her stately halls with gladness ring,
 As our fealty we renew.
 The gold and purple bid each heart,
 With purpose firm to play his part.
 Before the portals lifted high
 Lofty elms point to the sky

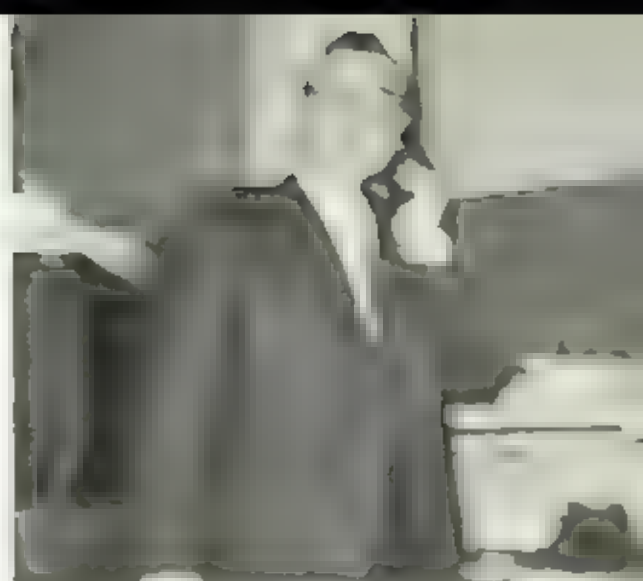

Loved Alma Mater ever true
 May we always cling to you.
 May every praise to you this day
 Hold us to thy mighty sway.
 When we have left thy honored halls
 Glad memories will be recalled
 Of victories won by the fold
 For the purple and the gold.
